

Kazimierz Pulaski University of Technology and Humanities in Radom, Poland is running an international video competition.

We would like to invite high school students and university students to create a 3-minute video on the topic: 'A day in the life of ...(nationality)... students'.

#internationalvideocompetition#highschoolstudents #universitystudents

The task is to record a video to show the way of life of typical students in their hometown. Students can choose the whole day, starting from the morning till the evening or a typical school day.

There are two categories: high school students and university students.

You can see the video promoting the contest prepared by the students of UTH in Radom, Poland here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cl-mdlnAuCU>

The deadline for the video entries is on 8th October 2017. The winners will be announced on 20 November 2017.

Entry assessment will be done in two stages:

1. 10 best films will be selected in 2 categories of the competition (10 films in each category) by the jury appointed by the Organiser.

Composition of the jury in the 1st stage of the competition:

Anna Stachurska
Magdalena Dygała
Iwona Gryz
Karolina Ditrych
Krzysztof Czaban

2. In the second stage of the competition, the Organizer will appoint a group of experts in the field of teaching, who will select 2 (out of 10) winning video entries in two age categories.

Composition of the jury in the 2nd stage of the competition:

Małgorzata Warmińska
Kieran Donaghy
Jon Hird
John Hughes
Rob Howard

Students upload their videos onto a video-sharing site (YouTube or Vimeo, etc.) and send the links to video.contest2017@uthrad.pl

The judging criteria:

- 30 points: topic
 - 30 points: creativity
 - 30 points: emotional value
 - 10 points: technical excellence
- Sum: 100 points

PRIZES:

1st prize (high school) : A gift card with a value of not less than 150 euros, a board game REGIPIO - Travel with English, books and gadgets from the publishers: Oxford University Press and Express Publishing.

1st prize (university) : A gift card with a value of not less than 150 euros, a board game REGIPIO - Beat about the bush in business, books and gadgets from the publishers: Oxford University Press and Express Publishing.

*We are still looking for sponsors 😊:)

The international video competition is aimed at meeting the following goals:

- provide an opportunity for students from different countries to demonstrate their way of life in an

www.film-english.com by Kieran Donaghy

FILM ENGLISH

international video competition against their peers.

- choosing the most original video which shows a typical day of students in their hometown.
- encourage students to be creative.
- to show students' talents.
- encourage students to use technologies.

Coordinator of the project: Magdalena Dygala video.contest.uth@gmail.com